On April 10, 2010, Social Advocates for Youth will be holding our annual BIG Event fundraiser featuring the O'SAY Corral. Our goal is to raise $125,000! With your generosity, we will be able to continue helping youth and families help themselves. Every dollar you contribute – whether a donation item or a cash gift – goes directly to supporting the children, youth, and parents we are privileged to serve. For example,

Ray Olmstead
Treasurer

Jonna Greene
Secretary

- A $50 contribution will enable a Tamayo House resident (SAY's transitional living facility for former foster youth) to buy food for one month.

Jeff Barnell

- A $1,000 contribution to Tamayo House will enable all residents to buy food for one month.

Eloisa Colin

- For $250, a family of three can buy a month bus pass so they can get to and from counseling sessions. (Many of our families do not own cars.)

Dan Brinker

- A $500 contribution will provide enough food to serve 700 homeless young adults at SAY's Street Outreach Center located at our Coffee House Teen Shelter.

Nancy Fastenau

- For $5,000, 30 gang-involved youth will have the chance to experience what most kids take for granted – summer vacation. SAY's Summer Leadership Program provides a safe environment where these young people learn teamwork through sports and participate in community service activities while having fun with caring SAY counselors. Many youth from the Summer Leadership Program go on to enroll in SAY's Youth Employment Center.
